

map

cross section

longitudinal section

The model "G" sliding drawer is manufactured with a metal sheet structure completely dust painted. The overhead structure is finished with a stainless steel trim and the overhead surface sliding movement causes the inner drawer to slide on the opposite direction. Model "G" is also provided with a tray stainless steel to exchange objects and documents.

See the technical file to know features and measures.

Available upon request: armoring increased or ballistics and different design.