

map

cross section

longitudinal section

The model "P" sliding drawer is manufactured with stainless steel sheet structure. The overhead structure is finished with a stainless steel trim and the overhead surface sliding movement causes the inner drawer to slide on the opposite direction. Model "P" is also provided with a tray stainless steel to exchange objects and documents. See the technical file to know features and measures.

Available upon request: armouring increased or ballistics and different design.